

FLOWER ANATOMY

Can you identify all the parts?

Stigma - The stigma gathers pollen.

Stamen - The stamen makes pollen.

Petal - The petals are often colorful and used to attract pollinators like bees and butterflies.

Sepal - These are leaves that protect the unopened flower.

Stem - The stem supports the flower and moves water and nutrients up and down the plant.